TROUBLE TO GET JURY TO TRY ORPET

Waukegan, Ill., May 18.—Three jurors for the murder trial of William Orpet were in the box at noon today and an extra venire of 100 was called. Officials fear that they will not be able to get a jury in this county. Both sides have 36 peremptory challenges left. Orpet is charged with poisoning his sweetheart, Marion Lambert, a high school girl. The possibility of asking a change of venue and transferring proceedings elsewhere was contemplated today. In the meantime, detectives for both the state and the defense are searching the homes of Orpet, Miss Lambert and their friends for additional evidence. It was indicated that efforts to find the bottle which was supposed to have contained the deadly poison failed. States Attorney J. Dady, head of the prosecution, has received a letter threatening death on account of his connection with the case.

Josephine Davis, closest friend of the dead girl, will be the first witness, it was announced. She will be called by the state to tell how Orpet spent the night prior to the death of his sweetheart. It is understood that the state will attempt to prove that Orpet met Marion the night before her death at a tryst in the woods.

Orpet's father grieved today over the receipt of a letter from J. W. Morgan, Baptist minister of Wisconsin, which he said contained a bitter denunciation of the manner in which he had raised his son.

COLORADO RIVER RISE THREATENS NEEDLES

Needles, Cal., May 18.—Ranchers and residents of Needles prepared today for eventualities as a result of the rapid rise in the Colorado river.

Great danger lies in a break in the river channel. The huge waterway has encroached upon the city more than 1,500 feet. Despite well-organized work on the part of 200 men under direction of Santa Fe railroad officials with rip-rapping by rock and willow buffers, little impression has been made on the expanding river course. Some sections of the railroad bordering the river have been carried away. Forty Indian huts have been swallowed up in the tide.

APPLIES FOR LICENSE FOR BABY CARRIAGE

Olympia, May 18.—A man in Vancouver has a motor driven baby carriage and has applied to the secretary of state for a license to operate it. He wrote as follows:

"A short time ago I took out a license for a motor attachment for a bicycle and now I want to transfer that motor to a baby carriage that I purchased when twins were born into my family. May I do this without taking out a new license?"

Secretary of State Howell in his reply to the proud, though anxious father, replied that the transfer would be allowed and extended him congratulations.

FRANCE TO INCREASE DUTY FOR WAR EXPENSE

Paris, May 18.—The French budget for the third quarter of this year exceeds $1,500,000,000. Finance Minister Ribot announced at the opening of the chamber of deputies today. He asked for an immediate increase of duties on many commodities to meet the war expense.

Misery in Back, Headache and Pain in Limbs.

Dear Mr. Editor—For more than a year I suffered with misery in the back, dull headache, pain in the limbs, was somewhat constipated and slept poorly at night until I was about ready to collapse. Seeing an account of the wonderful qualities of "Anurie," prepared by Doctor Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., I sent for a box, and before using the whole box I felt and still feel improved. My sleep is refreshing, misery reduced, and life is not the drag it was before. I most cheerfully recommend this remedy to sufferers from like ailments.

Yours truly, W. A. ROBERTS.

NOTE: You've all undoubtedly heard of the famous Dr. Pierce and his well-known medicines. Well, this prescription is one that has been successfully used for many years by the physicians and specialists of Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for kidney complaints, and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine, and urinary troubles.

Up to this time, "Anurie" has not been on sale to the public, but by the persuasion of many patients and the increased demand for this wonderful healing Tablet, Dr. Pierce has finally decided to put it into the drug stores of this country within immediate reach of all sufferers.

I know of one or two leading druggists in town who have managed to procure a supply of "Anurie" for their anxious customers in and around this locality. If not obtainable send one dime by mail to Dr. Pierce for trial package or 50 cents for full treatment.

EDITOR—Please insert this letter in some conspicuous place in your paper.

Old Time Toast Drinking.

There used to be an old superstition that it was bad luck to drink a toast with a person standing behind the drinker. The reason for the superstition is this:

Edward the Martyr by the contrivance of his stepmother, Elfrida, was stabbed in the back as he was drinking. It is said that from this affair arose the custom of having the man on either side of the toast drinker pledge him. According to William of Malmesbury, it was the usage when a person was about to drink a health to ask a neighbor at the board to pledge the toast. If the neighbor answered "Yes" he held up his knife or sword to guard the drinker as he quaffed, for while a man is drinking he is necessarily in an unguarded posture and exposed to a treacherous stroke.—New York Sun.

Not as Bad as That.

Early one bright spring morning a ragged tramp called at a country vicarage, where the lady of the house had the name of being very charitable.

"Kind lady," he began whiningly as he doffed his cap politely, "I ain't 'ad a bite to eat since my supper yesterday, an' tomorrow will be the third day."

"Poor fellow!" said the kind hearted woman. "You must be hungry! But you look strong! Why don't you look for work?"

"Ah, mum, ye see I'm a little bit silly," began the man in explanation. "Yes, but silly people can often get work," interrupted the lady.

"But I'm not that silly!" finished the tramp quickly.—London Telegraph.

Father of Astronomy.

Hipparchus, the father of astronomy, established the fact of the precession of the equinoxes—that is, that the sun crosses the equator about one minute farther westward each year—150 years before Christ was born, and it is consequently believed that he knew the earth was spherical in form. He catalogued 1,000 stars and invented an instrument for calculating latitude and longitude.

As Good as New.

The Browns were always on the out. High words were heard coming from their flat one day, and a neighbor said: "Oh, dear, have the Browns had a new quarrel?"

"No," answered another neighbor, "but they've patched up the old one till it's as good as new."

"Why do you dislike your teacher so, Willie?"

"I don't exactly dislike her, but it's perfectly plain to me why she never got married."—Detroit Free Press.

The Device on Turkish Stamps.

The curious symbol in the center of Turkish stamps, an intricate and mysterious device, is the "toughra," or signature of the sultan. It is said to owe its origin to Sultan Murad I, who was unable to write his name. St. Nicholas quotes from an article on "What Philately Teaches" as follows: "He (Murad I) signed imperial decrees by dipping his fingers in ink and placing them on the documents with three fingers close together and the little finger and thumb extended. In the course of time this was adopted and, so to speak, consecrated as the signature of the sultan. It was also elaborated and arranged to form a written phrase, while preserving in a general way its original form. The toughra contains certain characters which are permanent and minor ones which change. The latter are the names of the sovereign and his father." Mystic significations in course of time have become associated with this toughra.
